

Experts and Researchers for DG ECHO EU-Funded Global Framework Contract

About the project

Landell Mills International has been awarded, as consortium leader, an EU-funded global framework contract for the Directorate-General for European Civil Protection and Humanitarian Aid Operations (DG ECHO). The multiple framework contract is for services related to evaluation and impact assessment of the European Commission's humanitarian aid and civil protection activities.

The evaluations will be complex in nature and will cover a geographic region, country or a horizontal thematic area of DG ECHO's activities. Our highly competent consortium is made up of Universalia (Canada), American Institutes for Research (US), International Alert (UK) and Femconsult (the Netherlands).

About the role

We are seeking experts and researchers with expertise in evaluating geographic and thematic areas of humanitarian aid and civil protection.

Required expertise and experience

ECHO Evaluation Framework - Expert Criteria

Team Leader:

- at least 5 years' experience in managing evaluations of complex interventions at an aggregate level;
- at least 5 years' experience in Humanitarian Aid or Civil Protection;
- at least 5 years' experience of working in international projects;
- an excellent command of English at – at least – C1 level in the Common European Framework for Reference for Languages.

Senior expert:

- at least 4 years of experience in either evaluation/impact assessment or one of ECHO's areas of activity;
- at least 4 years' experience in working with international projects;
- Quality assurance expert:
- at least 7 years' experience in evaluation/impact assessment;
- at least 3 years' experience in quality assurance;
- at least 5 years' experience in working with international projects;
- an outstanding command of English at C2 level in the Common European Framework for Reference for Languages.

Report writer:

- at least 3 years' experience of evaluation of complex interventions at an aggregate level, including a track record of report writing;

- an outstanding command of English at C2 level in the Common European Framework for Reference for Languages.

How to apply

If you are interested in joining one of our evaluation teams, please send your tailored CV to ECHO@landell-mills.com stating which role you would be interested in.