

Creative Director/Team Leader

Communication and Visibility of EU Cooperation in Cambodia

Landell Mills is currently recruiting for a Creative Director/Team Leader to lead and provide creative oversight of the Communication and Visibility of EU Cooperation in Cambodia project.

Candidates should meet the following criteria:

Qualifications and skills

- Postgraduate degree in communication, public relations or equivalent, or alternatively, four years of professional experience in any of these sectors;
- Fluency in English language;
- Working level knowledge of French or Khmer language would be an asset.

General professional experience

- At least eight years general professional experience in the field of communication and visibility promotion with an international dimension;
- Multiple management leadership positions in the field of communications and visibility promotion, with international organisations, non-government organisations, and/or the public or private sector;
- At least one prior position working in a communications-focused team leadership role on an EU project, liaising with EU Delegations or EU bodies;
- Professional experience in Cambodia and/or the ASEAN region will be considered an asset but is not a necessity for this role.

Specific professional experience/skills:

- At least two assignments in which the expert was involved in the design and implementation of communication/visibility strategies entailing interactions with multiple stakeholders;
- At least two assignments in which the expert was in charge of coordinating or advising on the design or implementation of actions related to public diplomacy and/or development cooperation issues;
- Knowledge of EU policies and/or EU development cooperation programmes is required, and should be demonstrated by clearly describing specific tasks which required such knowledge in any two assignments reported on the expert's CV;
- Experience developing or overseeing behaviour change communications materials targeting both national and international audiences is desirable;
- Experience conceptualising and managing video and social media campaigns for international organisations/NGOs, targeting both national and international audiences, would be an asset for this role.

The role will begin as soon as possible: it is based in Phnom Penh and is effectively full-time until December 2023. Interested candidates must be willing to relocate to Phnom Penh for the duration of the project, as remote working is not a possibility for this position.

If interested, please send an up-to-date CV to Emily Cundale at EmilyC@landell-mills.com as soon as possible, including your desired daily fee rate and relevant work examples. We are considering applications on a rolling basis so would advise early CV submission. Please send any queries regarding this role to the same email address.
